THE CULVER EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Protestant Campus Minister

Department: Spiritual Life

Reports To: Director of Spiritual Life

Classification: exempt

JOB SUMMARY

Under the supervision of the Director of Spiritual Life, the Protestant Campus Minister helps create an environment which encourages all Protestant students and seekers to investigate and nurture their own Christian identity and the formation of a faith community which responds to the spiritual needs of other students, teachers/staff, and members of our local community. In collaboration with the Spiritual Life Department and the local parish, the campus minister provides pastoral support for the students, faculty and staff, and brings to life a campus rich in spirit, prayer, discipleship, social justice and preparation for Christian leadership in the Church and in society.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Protestant Campus Minister provides vision and coordination for the Culver Academies’ ministry to young people from 9th through 12th grades in a boarding school environment. The primary focus of this position is to forge and maintain meaningful relationships with students. Depending on the student, this will include:
  - Loving and sharing the Gospel with a student unfamiliar with the Christian faith
  - Encouraging and connecting a student who is new to the Christian faith
  - Teaching and discipling students who want to go deeper in the Christian faith
  - Training and empowering students ready to lead within the Christian faith

The Protestant Campus Minister will be responsible to:

- Lead the network of programs designed to minister to students:
  - Lead The HUB - Protestant Youth Group
  - Coordinate Bible studies and small groups
• Pastoral Care of students
• Working with adult volunteers
• Help lead worship services and oversee Praise Band
• Attend regular staff meetings and participate in staff planning
• Communicate to staff about youth ministry activities and seek staff input in planning youth ministry activities

In addition to regular duties, is expected to perform student supervisory and chaperone duties and engage in other such duties as may be assigned by the proper authorities.

QUALIFICATIONS

Experience, Education and Licensure

The ideal candidate will possess an M.Div. or equivalent degree. Candidates with a Bachelor’s Degree in theology, ministry, or related field, or commensurate experience will also be considered.

The employee must have knowledge of current youth culture and current trends and issues within those cultures, as well as knowledge of the Church’s teachings and practices.

Requires the ability to maintain confidentiality.

This person must be well-organized, flexible and enjoy the administrative challenges of supporting a program of diverse people and faith traditions – open to supporting interfaith initiatives.
