Lead Organizer
Pensacola Area Interfaith Justice Ministry

The Pensacola Area Interfaith Justice Ministry is a coalition of twenty faith communities dedicated to grassroots community organizing for justice in the Pensacola area. The Lead Organizer will train people of faith to successfully hold political and economic systems accountable for acting fairly. This includes coaching leaders to uncover community problems, research solutions, and organize direct action to call for change. The organizer will also train leaders on raising funds from within the organization to retain independence from outside interests and develop deeper commitment to the organization.

The Pensacola Area Interfaith Justice Ministry is part of the DART Network, one of the largest faith-based community organizing networks in the country.

The Pensacola Area Interfaith Justice Ministry is an equal opportunity employer.

Responsibilities

- train grassroots faith leaders in building strong justice ministry networks
- help leaders conduct research and develop action plans for winnable issue campaigns
- recruit new leaders and congregations into the organization
- organize annual 6-8 week fundraising drive
- train and supervise Associate Organizer staff
- conduct an average of 8 one-to-one meetings with clergy and lay leaders per week

Qualifications

- sincere passion for justice
- strong work ethic
- proven capacity to build relationships of trust
- comfort working with religious congregations
- willingness to be held accountable and hold others accountable
- flexibility to meet with leaders on weekends and in the evening

Preference given to candidates with formal community organizing training or professional organizing experience in a congregational, community or advocacy setting.

Salary and Benefits

Starting salary is $50,000. A higher salary is negotiable based on experience. Benefits include: paid vacation and holidays, healthcare coverage, retirement, parental leave, and reimbursements for work-related travel.

To Apply

Send a cover letter and resume to Hannah Wittmer at hannah@thedartcenter.org.